

Please do not give LPFM priority over FM translator service, potentially leaving us without our KLOVE radio station. We listen to it every day. It provide me and my family as well as so many others with great inspiration. Among my circle of friends and family, we listen to it pretty much exclusively to other stations because of inspirations words and songs. Thanks for your consideration.